Description

Alpine experience in the heart of the Valais
Over the course of 2 days, discover the mountains in a different way, with the added bonus of climbing the Aiguille du Tour, at an altitude of 3,542 meters.

Situated in the Mont Blanc massif, the Aiguille du Tour is the perfect summit to soak up all the ingredients of a high-mountain race.

The programme includes two busy days in a superb setting, with no particular difficulties, but it will be an opportunity to learn the technical basics of mountaineering (use of ice axe, crampons and very easy climbing). And all this in a superb glacial landscape.

Take your first step into the alpine world and discover the majestic environment of high altitude. As you walk, soak up the magnificent scenery and enjoy the beautiful evening atmosphere at the Cabane du Trient.

Program

Day 01: Champex -> Refuge du Trient, 3170 m / 10,401 ft

Meeting point in Champex
Welcome by our mountain guide WILD YAK. Equipment check.

After equipment check, we take the Breya chairlift. From the top of the lift, a comfortable path through the Combe d'Orny takes us to the Cabane du Trient.

On arrival at the top of the chairlift, we are immediately immersed in a truly Alpine setting.

Overnight stay at the Cabane du Trient.

D+: 1070 m / D-: 94 m

Duration: approx. 3h30

Day 02: Cabane du Trient -> Aiguille du Tour -> Cabane du Trient -> Champex

After an early breakfast, we quickly set foot on the Trient glacier. Roped into the glacier, we'll make good progress in the early morning light. Below the aiguille du Tour, we leave our packs and ice axes for the final ascent. The summit is reached via easy rocky passages.
Descend by the same route to the refuge and then the valley.

D+: 550 m / D-: 1550 m

Duration: approx. 6h30

 The program is subject to change according to mountain conditions and the fitness of participants.
